

20 January 1958

Dear Norman:

As a belated Christmas and New Year's present, I send you a reproduction of the somewhat battered photograph of the "Three Musketeers" plus d'Artagnan, taken in the fateful month of May 1916. Of the four, it seems to me that the picture of Norman Armour d'Artagnan is the best. The fact that we are all in the land of the living at least is a tribute to the vigor of the first four of the 1916 diplomatic corps.

Also, many thanks for the MM Diary which is in daily use and a daily reminder.

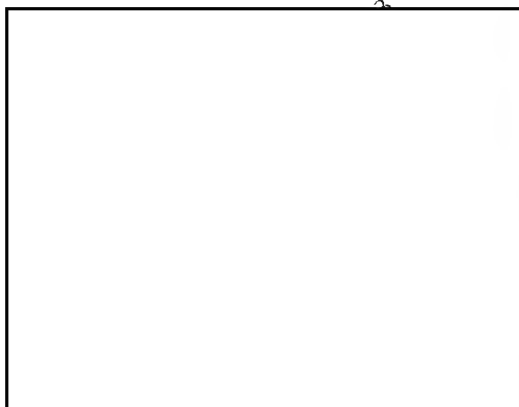

Clover joins me in love to Myra.

As ever,

Norman Armour, Esq.
